

YOU'RE INVITED!

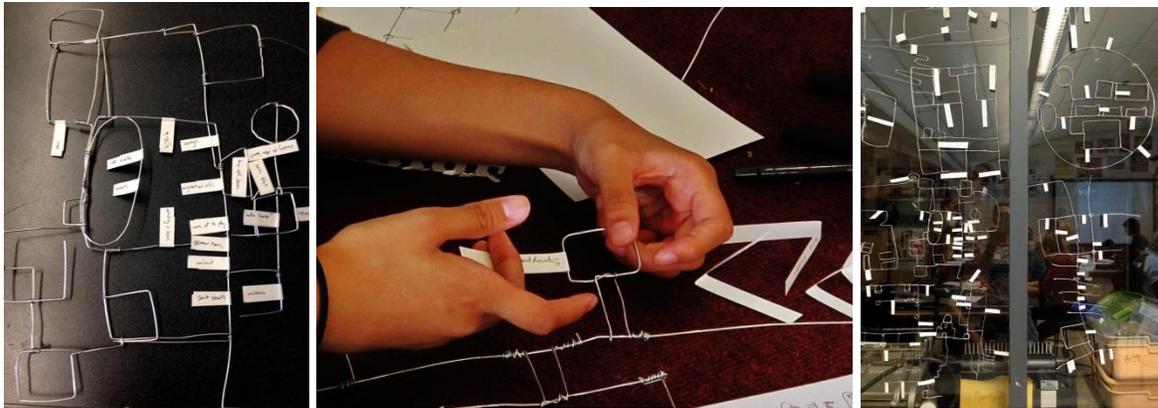

PLEXUS: network

Thursday, October 23, 2014
6:00 – 8:00 pm

South Park Neighborhood Center
8201 10th Ave S
(free parking lot behind building, entrance on Southern St.)

- Hear from students about wire sculpture and sound-based art works generated from South Park school-community workshops.
- Preview new works by local artists, sculptor Michelle de la Vega and composer Jovino Santos Neto.
 - Enjoy food, beverage, and good company.

Exhibit produced by LA SALA

Images: Luzia Grob dos Santos and Michelle de la Vega of Chief Sealth International High School student work

La Sala
a latino/latina artist's network

Look for second public exhibit at the CoCA-Georgetown Gallery on Thursday, November 20 (www.cocaseattle.org).

LA SALA is a Shunpike affiliated collective. Plexus is generously sponsored by 4Culture, City's Department of Neighborhoods, Center on Contemporary Art, The Seattle Foundation, and Cornish College for the Arts.

Supporting partners include Chief Sealth International High School, Concord International Elementary School-Community Learning Center, Project L.E.A.P., South Park Neighborhood Association.